(The Sanuki Udon Song)

By Mihiro & Jeremy

I went down to west Japan
The smallest prefecture in the land
A little place called Kagawa famous for its udon

Thick, white noodles made from wheat in a simple broth they call Dashi
A few green onions thrown on top
It's delicious cold or hot

I went into a famous shop
At lunchtime everyone lined up
To slurp the long, firm noodles down
Next in line was my turn

But the menu was in Japanese
I couldn't read a single thing
Someone please explain to me
What kind of udon?
What kind of udon?
What kind of udon should I eat?

Kake, zaru, kamaage
Niku, curry, kamatama
BUKKAKE! BUKKAKE!

Shoyu, kitsune, wakame
Tsukimi, hiyashi, ontama
BUKKAKE UDON!

Chorus

Now I know what they mean
Sanuki udon can't be beat
It's fast, it's good, it's super cheap
There's even udon ice cream

So grab a tray and join the line
Let's have udon any time
There are hundreds of shops that you can try the best Sanuki Udon!

Chorus

Alright everyone, I think we should sing it together now
But maybe we should practice first
Alright, repeat after me

Kake, zaru, kamaage
Niku, curry, kamatama
BUKKAKE! BUKKAKE!

Shoyu, kitsune, wakame
Tsukimi, hiyashi, ontama
BUKKAKE UDON!

Chorus

It's all SANUKI UDON!
